MONDAY MORNING, MAY 12 1862

The Democracy and Compromise.

We congratulate the country upon the clear and lucid answers given to our questions in the Advertiser of Friday last. It says we propose to compromise "upon the broad basis of the Constitution." Now we humbly submit, that this is as clear as mud. Such an answer is no answer at all. Here are two great conflicting parties, with vast interests at issue—issues affecting not only the present but reaching into the far future, involving all times and all generations. They have been upon the hustings, they have plied the press the pulpit, the bar, (both bars, if you will) into their service, they have invoked the choicest oratory the richest imagery, then most luxuriant bursts of genius and song they have employed the sharpest satire and raillery, and not forgotten the strongest ridicule, they have not failed to appeal to the passions and emotions of men, processions accompanied by banners and transparencies and mottoes and martial music, and the booming of cannon, have filed away in gorgeous pomp before the people. The canvass has been active, the utmost freedom of thought and expression used, and the result is finally determined at the polls. There is no pretense that on election day the victorious party played foul, no accusation of unfairness, of illegality, no question has been raised or can be raised, that, according to the recognized forms of law—"upon the broad basis of the Constitution," as our friends over the way have it—that the republican party were not entitled to all the benefits of principle and administration, that had heretofore accrued to their opponents under like circumstances. We contend that by all principles of justice known among men, and we fear not the verdict of civilization, either present or future, that it was the duty of the minority to submit, and with customary good grace. We heard Mr. Watt say, at the the theatre in this city that the democracy had been in power all but twelve years since the establishment of the Government. Surely, this being so, you might have given us four years more—especially as you had the majority in the Senate. You had the Supreme Court, you had all the laws, for by your own showing you made them all. You had half the States at your back, and only the most meagre majorities against you in others.

The man elected President was of pure character, of competent ability, and not of towering ambition. At the opening of this wicked revolt, no man had suffered in life, property, or estate. No law was upon the statute book, of which your villain friends complain, and none was proposed not justly warranted by the result of the election of November. What prating is this then, about compromising "Upon the broad basis of the Constitution?" What fact is more on the "broad basis of the Constitution than that Abraham Lincoln on the fourth of March 1861, was the President of the whole United States? Is that to be compromised?

We ask you to compromise upon the plane proposed to your party in Congress by Stephen A. Douglas.—Advertiser

Now, if there is anything which will carry this Jeff Davis Union party through, it is their sublime audacity, to call the name of Douglas ought to blister their shameless tongues. They removed him from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Territories, they bolted in the fierce struggle which took him back to the Senate Chamber. They followed him with hate to Charleston broke up the Convention because Douglas was its choice, though it was plain to all men that his name was the only one which could gather and lead with hope the dissevered and hostile bands of the hitherto victorious democracy. You are the ones who rejected not only the counsels, the compromises of Douglas but rejected him, flatuously, wrongfully and as we verily believe with the definite purpose and intent of breaking up this Union of ours.

We ask you to compromise by satisfying your Southern brethren (call them Davis & Co., if you please) that if they drop their arms and haul down the standard of rebellion, they shall have and be protected in each and every right guaranteed them under the Constitution of the United States.—Advertiser

Mr Lincoln asked them to lay down their arms (stolen arms too) they wouldn't do it, and now we propose to make them. Yes—we will protect them. "Treason shall consist in levying war against the United States, &c., and the punishment for treason is death. Do you favor that provision amongst the rest?

We ask you to satisfy the South that her apprehensions of your party's extreme secessionism is unfounded.—Advertiser

We would, but they prefer your lies to our truths.

You must satisfy the south that you can and will not sanction this war.—Advertiser

From what your candidates say we suppose you in favor of the war, or does the donkey ears stick out sometimes, eh?

You will have to compromise for Douglas told you that.—Advertiser

If you respect Douglas so much why did not follow him? But in noticing our short article our neighbor has omitted one very essential thing and that is he has not shown us that his friends South would now accept or ever would, any terms whatever. No word, official or otherwise has ever shown that they would accept of anything less than absolute independence. For this we are not prepared. Oregon is not prepared. The people of this glorious Union are not prepared and never will be till we are as soundly thrashed as we intend to thrash them. Mark that!

For the people of the Southern portion of this Union we have not the least unkind feeling. We wish them well from the innermost recesses of our hearts. We would not injure them in property of whatever kind, or in the least cast opprobrious epithets upon their name. We would have them as heretofore loving sisters in this galaxy of States. We would have them rather wiser, better than ever before. We would have their country blossom with richness and plenty. We would have a busy multitude throng their thoroughfares laden with the products of a prolific soil and their rivers floating such commerce as the world has never seen. But they must learn that other portions of the Union are every way their peers and that from the decision of the ballot box there shall be no appeals till the polls are opened again. For the present there are irreconcilable difficulties (our peace democracy being judges) the armament has been appealed from the forum to the field, the jury of armies are out and the contest is being settled over hecatombs of the slain. While this is the case all this twaddle about compromise reminds us of the logic of the old nursery rhyme

> Mother may I go to swim?
> Yes my darling daughter
> Hang your clothes on a hickory limb,
> But don't go near the water

The Rebels Cheating.—The rebels have been playing their old game of cheating in the exchange of prisoners. When the 2,700 rebel prisoners upon Roanoke Island were released by General Burnside on parole, it was upon the distinct understanding, entered into between General Wool and General Howell Cobb that the Federal prisoners remaining at the South, including Colonels Corcoran and Wilcox should be immediately sent forward to Norfolk to complete the exchange. There are not enough Federal prisoners at the South to make good the number of rebels captured on Roanoke Island but General Wool was willing to let the account go unsettled. He has been tricked however. Four weeks have passed away, and neither Colonel Corcoran nor Colonel Wilcox has made his appearance off Fortress Monroe, nor one of the rank and file due according to the arrangement. It is considered highly probable that the rebels mean to shirk from their part of the arrangement, now that they have got back their troops captured by Burnside.—Sac Union

To the Voters of Oregon.—When your children in after years inquire whether you were in favor of this great rebellion or against it, what will the answer be? How will your vote be recorded? for the Union or for secession? for the Union ticket or for the masked secession ticket? Those that are not for the Union are against it. Do you love your country, or do you love party better?

Snakes in the Grass.—We are told that certain persons, while professing to be strong Union men, are doing all they can to defeat the Union ticket. We trust they will meet the rebuke they deserve from all men that desire to place Oregon at the coming election on the side of the Government.

The Chinese.—The Governor of California has signed the Chinese tax bill and it is now a law. It imposes a tax of $2 50 per month on all Chinese over eighteen years of age, except those who are engaged in mining and pay the regular mining tax.

Gov. George W. Johnson, and the rest of the "Provisional Government," of Kentucky, are at Decatur, Alabama, having established the Capital of Kentucky in a Sibley tent, hear that General's head quarters.

The River.—We learn from Mr. D. Lowell that the Columbia was falling, on Saturday. The Willamette at this point, has been at a stand for the last forty eight hours previous to nine o'clock last night.

Qualified.—C. F. Hale the new Indian Superintendent for Washington Territory vice B. F. Kendall, has received his commission and qualified.

The flood in the Snake river has overflowed the gardens of the Nez Perces Agency. The amount of damage done is not yet known.

Indian Battle.—The Nez Perces, Bannocks and Crow Indians, have recently had a fight with the Blackfeet and Sioux tribes in the Buffalo country. Four Nez Perces were killed.

Yamhill County.

LAFAYETTE, May 8th, 1862.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Our County Union Convention met on Monday last. Hon. Jere Lamson was elected to the Chair, who, on calling the convention to order, made a few very appropriate relative to the objects of the meeting and the importance of the Union movement in this State.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for the nominees to the various offices of this county. The following gentlemen were nominated: Representatives to the Legislature—Gen. Joel Palmer and John Cummins. County Judge—J. W. Cowls. County Clerk—S. C. Adams. County Commissioners—T. M. Cochran and Sebastian Brutcher. Sheriff—H. Warren. Treasurer—I. T. Hembree. School Superintendent—Rev. John Spencer. Surveyor—Chas. Hanley.

The greatest unanimity and good feeling pervaded the entire session.

So far as I have been able to ascertain since the nominations have been made, the ticket is regarded by the Union men of this county as entirely acceptable and will be heartily supported at the coming election. Several such formerly democrats, expressed their warm approbation of the ticket, declaring at the same time that they were anxious to see some of the candidates in the field zealously laboring for the success of the same.

Our county will give a pretty large majority for the Union ticket. This all concede.

UNION.

Meeting at Vancouver, W. T.

A meeting was held in the city of Vancouver on Thursday, May 8th for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps towards the organization of a Union party, with a view to the nomination of a Union ticket to be voted for by the citizens of Clark county at the ensuing election. On motion the meeting was organized by calling Col. A. G. Tripp to the Chair, and the appointment of Joseph M. Fletcher Secretary. It was then

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to draft resolutions declaratory of the sense of the meeting.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Cochran Hollines, Rauch, Farnsworth and Lockwood who, after deliberation, reported as follows:

Resolved, That this meeting recommend a County Convention to be held in the town of Vancouver on the 21st day of June next, for the purpose of placing in nomination a County and Territorial ticket; that all true, loyal voters who are in favor of maintaining the Government in crushing rebellion, hanging traitors, and maintaining the Constitution and laws of the Union, are hereby requested to meet in their several precincts on the 14th day of June and elect delegates to the said County Convention. The Rehabilitation of Virginia.—Correspondents write that the advent of Union troops into Virginia has already had a beneficial effect upon the Union sentiment in Fairfax county. A proposition has been made to organise a home guard in the county, for more perfect security of the inhabitants.

Many of the farmers are to be seen on the Fall's turnpike, between Alexandria and Manassas, busy at work in erecting their fences, which has been destroyed by the rebel troops. They express their confidence in being protected from further invasion, and will now go on with the cultivation of their farms, confident that the danger from the war clouds has passed over them. But very little Winter grain has been put in, and the wheat crop has been almost entirely neglected.—Gen. Sumner has issued an important order prohibiting acts of marauding. He assures the people of Virginia that their only safety is the General Government, and that it will be his constant endeavor to protect them in their persons and property to the extent of his power.

Snow.—On last Saturday morning snow fell to the depth of three inches on Portland Mountain, about two miles south west of the city.

27 Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are a fruitful cause of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brandreth's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat by over so slight, as by this prompt remedy the worst attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Second advertisement.

27 The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. J. J. CZAPKAY is already occupied in a position which the city has well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in the department of medical science, and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has fully realized him in this country as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma of the highest honor and first degree. Selecting this as his field of practice although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and elected Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for more extended labors, Dr. J. J. Czapkay has fought his way to the front rank in his profession by every qualification which he has the one so great a conquest that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of human knowledge in the Pacific States. Testimonials that will greatly astonish the world are published as matter of interest to the public and the sufferer. Dr. Czapkay's Medical Institute is one of the most extensive in this line. The Doctor will be found at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street corner of Dupont, in the elegantly appointed buildings of the Pacific Medical Company San Francisco. We ask particular attention to the advertisement which appears from his pen in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to be treated by correspondence will please call at his office, and they will get him immediately at their service. Address, J. J. CZAPKAY, M. D. San Francisco, Cal. THE WOULD-BE DEMOCRATIC MEETING ON SATURDAY NIGHT.—According to previous notice, those who pretend to guide the Democratic ship, assembled at the Council Chamber on Saturday night. But the good old Democrats, those who have stood by the party through thick and thin the question, Shall this Government be sustained? was not the issue—the question by which party could best administer the affairs of State, were not present—not one of them. After considerable time they succeeded in drumming up enough to make a show, when T. J Holmes was elected Chairman, and the balloting for delegates to the County Convention commenced—eighty votes being cast. It was discovered that some one had voted twice, and consequently one was thrown out leaving twenty seven votes cast in this old democratic precinct. It is scarcely necessary to repeat again and again that all Democrats will come out boldly and vote for the Government—go for the Union and say first restore to us our country, then Fathers made it, and then we will fight.

The following gentlemen were elected delegates: T J Holmes, J F Castle, Thos Fitzgerald, Thos Cree, Thos Byrnes, M Moore, Wm. L. McEwan, E Gallin, Wm. L. McEwan, F Gallin, Wm. Bailey, H. H Black, J H Block and the South Portland Precinct the following were elected Messrs Nottage Starkweather, Shelby, Farrar, McCarver, Prince and Middleton

FOR MISS LAWRENCE.—MISS VIRGINIA LAWRENCE takes a benefit at the theatre this evening. It will be remembered that Miss Lawrence was billed for a benefit several weeks ago, but she was taken suddenly ill, and the benefit postponed. This is the night to attend. Mr. and Mrs Forbes will sing several patriotic songs will be sung and we learn that some of the fire-boys will be out in uniform.

SUICIDE BANK.—A span of horses went off the bank into the river, opposite the Custom House. They were drawn out without a splurge in the water

FINANCES.—We publish to-day the ordinance fixing the salary of the City Attorney and abolishing auctioneers.

How They Take It in Richmond.—The New Orleans Crescent has a Richmond correspondent who expresses the public consternation in a very lively way, as will be seen by the following extracts

You will naturally desire to know how the people in the Confederate metropolis stand these trying times—for it is evident that we are not safe in these days of light draft gun boats and high water Inasmuch, in the main, we stand it very well Some, to be sure are down-hearted, and nobody wears as broad a grin as they did the day after the battle of Leesburg Still, there is a universal determination to do or die—to go down, if need be, with our harness on, waiting like a brave people to the last I passed General Wigfall on my return from dinner, and asked him if there was any news "No," said he, "I don't believe we have been whipped since dinner I expect, though, to hear of another defeat in the next five minutes"

Somehow I can't help thinking of Halleck's assertion by telegraph to McClellan, that "the Union flag is on the soil of Tennessee, never to be removed." This is long, but the Yankees have, up to this time, stuck like leeches wherever they have effected a landing They intrench themselves, and at the first spade full of earth thrown up by them, our Generals give right up and say all is lost They have attacked us repeatedly in trenches and forts and carried the latter invariably, while we with the exception of the St. Nicholas affair and a few others, have not done a daring thing through the whole war.

Another noticeable difference between the Yankees and ourselves is that they follow up their victories, while we squat down in our tracks the moment a battle is ended This is a shameful fact, which disheartens me more than anything else. I have no hope now in anybody but God and Beauregard.

A Loyal Quaker Woman.—The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Evening Post writing March 23d, says

Just before the rebels evacuated the village of Waterford, near Leesburg, they openly avowed they would burn it to the ground, as it was nothing more than a "cursed Quaker settlement." A noble hearted Quaker woman, whose husband had been chased from his home by the rebels some months before, besought a gentleman of her faith to hasten to Colonel Geary's camp some eight miles away, and ask him to send a force to Waterford to prevent the threatened conflagration He had a fine horse but declined the duty, owing to the danger of getting through the rebel pickets. "Lend me thy horse, then," she said. He declined again "Then I will steal thy horse," she said, "and go myself" She forthwith directed a servant to take the horse to a neighboring wood, to which the owner made no resistance. Another servant took her sidesaddle to the horse, when the horse appeared, and mounting the animal rode off in open daylight right through the pickets who did not stop her, strange to say When she got to Geary's camp she met her husband, and being brought into the presence of the Colonel, she made known the object of her mission, which was quickly complied with, and she rode back to Waterford at the head of a detachment, which got into Waterford just in time to see the rebel force leaving the opposite end of the town as fast as their legs could carry them. And thus this pretty little village was saved from conflagration by the resolute conduct of this Quaker lady.

The Rebel Commander of the Merrimac.—The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Evening Post, referring to the death of Captain Buchanan, says:

It is said that his knee was shattered by the Minie ball of the Indiana soldier from the shore, and that he died after amputation But whether dead or alive, this man's career in the rebellion has been marked by a singular perversity. He was in command at the Navy Yard while drunken Mugruder marched up Pennsylvania avenue at the head of his flying artillery, to protect President Lincoln when he was inaugurated How like putting wolves on guard. Buchanan afterwards retired to his country seat at Easton, on the eastern shore of the State, got uneasy, wrote a piteous and begging letter to be allowed to come back into the navy, with the obvious design of betraying his trust, and when he found no notice taken of his appeal, made straightway for secessia, whence he emerged to strike a murderous blow at the bosom of his country, that had nursed and nurtured him from infancy to old age, and to make war upon a faithful brother on the Congress When the lamented Colonel Smith, of the Brooklyn Thirteenth made a descent upon the eastern shore last Summer, to stir up the rebels and capture their arms, a few of his command passed Buchanan's house at Easton, and stepped into his premises to draw a bucket of water from the well to quench their thirst For this act he sent a bill to Colonel Smith of some two or three hundred dollars for damages done to his property! Pity it is that he had not been consigned last Summer to Fort Lafayette. But he has gone to his own place, whether living or dead, and the country and hundreds of innocent people have to lament that he ever lived, while the absence of the Congress and Cumberland from the roll of the navy will tell of his infamous name as their destroyer.

The Duration of the Southern Rebellion.—The New York Express thus discourses upon this subject.

This question now naturally enough begins to be discussed—even while the Southern leading rebels are furious with fire and froth—swearing they will die, burn, drown, destroy, perish, etc Now all this is fol-de-rol—Southern fol de-rol—and as no one of us, North or South, are fond of dying in any last ditches, before our times come—the war will end when there is nothing to fight for Spleen, spite, froth, fury, gas, gas bombasts are not fighting material—and they wont stand bayonet pricking—certainly not commanding

The fact is, we of the North have not so much out-whipped, or, if you please, so much "subjugated" the South as we have out generaled it. The rebel commanders have been out-maneuvered, out flanked, in about every step taken since the beginning of January last Better mind, more mind, a higher order of intellect, have directed the Northern than the Southern arms.

D. late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War Chief Physician of the 50th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the most Eminent in the said Department of Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco

Of all diseases the most prevalent cause Springs from neglected or Nature's laws

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Face, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the Sexual Organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Diseases of Maidens with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Weak Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Pimples, Blotches—and all impurities or discharges of both sexes, it matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or however the case receives immediate relief in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their mercurial cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, and entirely vegetable causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up by their physicians, which were and are in print for the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases, the greatest enemies to health as they are the first cause of ruining that host of disease and many other diseases and shall refer to the human family. A permanent cure in every case will be effected in a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to give the desired cure but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury which will the disease, fastens the same. But a rapid process will be used, should the disease and the treatment be conducted speedily and the victim may be restored to health and vigor, on the children who are born with the following diseases, such as the running Cliff (or rupture), Sore Eyes, Scrofula, Fever Sores, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworm, Scald Head, Sore Ears, Sore Throat, Pimples on the face, Blotches on the skin, eyes thrust and large glands, ulcerations, and many other forms of suffering, and a disgusting train to an early grave.

Self abuse is another fearful enemy to health for nothing seems to produce a greater host of more miserable cases of an destructive drain upon the system—destroying both the mind and body of its victims through a few years of suffering, and an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, and wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, unfits for marriage, secret trainings in all cases of happiness and loss of the perfect way to health and mind restored to a perfect cleanliness and a life to be dreaded than death itself. With the utmost confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that by a faithful adherence to my directions and a few weeks treatment, they will be restored to perfect vigor of health.

Disqualifications and all diseases of malformation from exposure in a ignorance will be given to fit for marriage. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States, Oregon and Washington Territory by mail or express, on receiving their description by letter.

All business correspondence will be addressed to DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Montgomery street, between Montgomery and Sansome, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office San Francisco

Thankfulness is the incentive to Gratitude

PHILANTHROPIA—Prompted by an honest desire of good I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as an act of scientific skill but of humanity also. About two years ago, I undertook a case which was to me was seized with spells of which ended, to my surprise, in my being given up by my physicians. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning and although I was still in the agonies, I yet had the presence of mind enough to send for Dr. Czapkay, who would render assistance or shelter me from death. What in the world I was to do, having, previous to my last fit, made a resolution and by recommending prices, called at the office, I told him of my case, and he immediately commenced with me. I soon found myself restored to health. I shall ever remember him for the boon which I enjoy and pray that all who are afflicted as I was may find relief in the same manner, and that the recommendation of medical advice may find a place with those who may seek it.
